SEASON 4

NOW OR NEVER

A docu-reality television show in which members of the public who harbor a deep-seated need to correct a wrong or address an overdue issue finally leap into action. The show is about making resolutions, making peace and accepting change. The show does not orchestrate the 'now or never' moment, it rather provides a platform that challenges ordinary members of the public to break the cycle of fear, dependency, apathy and or procrastination. The psyche of the characters featured during the series cracks open any limitations and restrictions in order to pursue their passion and embrace change. Their vulnerabilities and shortcomings are exposed. They anger the people closest to them, break or make friendships and loose loyalties built over long periods, but they emerge stronger, and become more content about who they are, and what they stand for.

ONE DAY LEADER

One day Leader is a reality format that aims to identify and develop young leaders, between the ages of 18 and 25, while engaging the public and creating awareness around critical social and economic issues. For South Africa to reach its developmental goals, and address its many social issues, it will need strong leadership: not only now, but well into the future. The idea behind One Day Leader is not to criticize current leaders or forms of leadership. Instead the show aims to encourage young and bright minds to come up with innovative ways of addressing issues, while exposing them to the kinds of challenges and difficulties leaders are faced with.
